Teacher Appreciation Day

Is Next Week

PTO has planned a full day of appreciation for our teachers and staff members on Wednesday, May 7th. Chick-fil-a has donated breakfast to start the day off right and a PTO catered luncheon will allow the employees to relax in a student-free atmosphere. Candygrams will be personally delivered and gifts will be given out to teachers. Through the generosity of local businesses and some MJCA parents there will drawings for gift baskets, gift cards, flowers and other items.

There is no specific theme this year, we just ask that you or your child give your teacher some kind of note of appreciation. Please remember extra-curricular teachers, cafeteria workers, Extended Care, office personnel, and maintenance. PTO needs parents to help out the secondary students for this servant event to even take place. Call Tamara @ 872.1011 if you can volunteer for any block of time. Let's show MJCA how much we love them!

A Night on Broadway
